“Terry was fantastic from the day we met. He gave us so much information and advice and he really understood what we wanted. Terry even gave us a dive for music for the ceremony and how to pick it without trying to even sell us his own ceremony services. On the night the lights and setup looked brilliant and gave a nice atmosphere to the room. All of the songs we requested were played and everybody had a wonderful time. A day i will never forget.”

“This man loves his job and is brilliant at it. He is so passionate about music and knows how to keep the dance floor packed all night”

“We were undecided if we wanted a band or a DJ. Bands had always been better at weddings that we had been to in the passed. Terry Lewis blew this perception out the water. From start to finish he was fantastic. Not only on the day was he immaculate, kept the dance floor full and great with our mix of Jewish/traditional dance floor fillers, but during the build up he was always contactable, happy to help and on hand.

Would 100% recommend to friends and family”

“I witness his work at a friend’s wedding and I was blown away. His attention to details, organisation, and all round entertainment value.”

“From our very first meeting, we loved Terry. Being quite stressed with other aspects of our planning, from our first meeting Terry re-ignited our excitement for the wedding. We knew we had to have him. We were not disappointed either – he was such a joy and so easy to work with. His efficiency is remarkable. The details we discussed at our first meeting were already emailed to us with other useful wedding information even before we got home. This kind of efficiency builds a really important level of trust and reassurance that your supplier takes your event as seriously as you do. This is a quality that cannot be underestimated and given our other experience with other suppliers is quite rare. Thank you Terry”

“We were at a wedding where he was DJing and he stood out over any other DJ at the many other weddings we had been too.”

“Upon meeting him, there was never any doubt. Friendly, professional, classy, assuring – this guy is the perfect wedding DJ”

“Because Terry was very active in listening & we knew he would make it personal to us. He said he would treat out wedding like one of his own, and he certainly did. Would recommend him to anyone!”

“From the very first enquiry Terry was the model professional. He was informative without being pushy, clearly explaining the various packages on offer. Once we had booked, his communication was timely; he responded quickly to our queries. An absolute gent.”

“We loved Terry’s website as it had clips of weddings which gave us a great idea of what services he provided. He was always happy to advise and help whether by call, Skype or email. A first class communicator. Terry never behaved as if he was just trying to get a sale. He delivered as he said he would do and in our wedding planning this was a rare site. He was professional and really punctual for our wedding. I just saw the room was set up and that was it. No issues. I was shocked at the lighting, I had to ask him if I had booked a better package than I booked as I thought it looked too good for me to have paid the great price I did. The staff at the hotel also said that they have not had a wedding party where they actually loved the music! Terry recommended how we should do our bouquet and garter throw at the same time, it was brilliant, and the circle of love at the end of the night allowed me to sing one of my favourite songs whilst thanking all the guests left standing at the end of the night. All our guest kept asking me if he was family or if I known him for a long time or if a friend told me about him, I said 'no, my husband found him on the internet' he was totally professional, well presented and approachable all night. Would recommend and book him again!"

"Warm and welcoming person with a complete understanding of what we wanted. Our guests were so happy and had positive comments to say”

“We were looking for a DJ who could play and fulfil the needs of a Jewish wedding. We met Terry at his house where he showed us a video presentation as well as a book of his work at weddings. He even had 2 glasses of orange juice waiting for us. We had a chat about everything we wanted at the wedding. He asked us many questions and was very informative so nothing was left out. We loved his professionalism and the fact that he was so down to earth. we trusted him and it worked out fantastically.”

“Recommendation from a friend.”

“Just an overall nice man and can tell he likes a good party, therefore the right person to DJ at our wedding we thought!”

“He was friendly and easy to talk to.”

“When we met Terry we knew he was the DJ for us. We also had a meeting with him early on in which he outlined everything that we needed to think about. He was so organised and knew what he was doing which was very reassuring. He was also completely flexible which was proved on the wedding day when we had to change the layout of the Disco – we made one call to Terry who was completely happy to change his set up time and layout to make things work! Life Saver!”

“We found Terry on the web and after seeing several others Terry just stood out above the rest.”

“The reason we booked Terry because we liked him as a person along with his professional attitude. He was very understanding and worked to our tastes during the wedding preparation. We couldn't be happier with our choice."

“Professional service with a great approach to how music should be for the entire event.”

“He is well-known in the entertainment industry”

“When i met Terry he was charming and really enthusiastic about his job. He was interested in my venue and what kind of music i liked. It felt like it was a tailored and personalised approach as opposed to playing the songs he liked which some DJ’s tend to do.”

“Many reasons really. He won an award on this website last year and had played at Fennes before – both scored highly on our criteria. When we then communicated with him by email and phone we were immediately struck by his professionalism and his ease to talk to. His price was also very reasonable. He was one of the few things we booked that we didn’t stress about in the build up to the wedding and that is the biggest compliment i can pay him. We trusted him and boy did he deliver. Would recommend him to our friends in a heartbeat!”

“Impressed by the awards he had won – and won over by his personality and his enthusiasm when we met for a meal.”

“We booked Terry Lewis because in our opinion, he was the best DJ we saw by far. In our meeting to discuss what he could offer he became more of a wedding planner / DJ. He really helped us with setting the timetable for our wedding day and this allowed us to plan effectively. The booking process was clear and simple and the packages he offered were just right for our budget. The Facebook group he suggested we create, was a big hit with our guests and made the evening reception more relaxed. The music was amazing! People were dancing from beginning to end. One of my guests said “I don’t dance at wedding receptions, but I’m really enjoying just listening your DJ.” The circle of love and the tunnel he organised for us was so special. A perfect end to an amazing day.”

“We watched loads of Terrys videos online and saw everybody having a good time. This was important to us, and when we were researching for a DJ, most people only had pictures or a video which did not show many people dancing.”

“Wedding DJ of the year 2014, recommendations on his profile, money back guarantee if we didn’t enjoy the day. upon meeting him, his personality and general knowledge.”

“Because he was the best. He just made us feel special.”

Terry has wonderful ideas to make our evening more than just a party. Terry is an entertainer so much more than just a DJ, he presents himself in a fine way & is the perfect DJ.

His service & approach is so personal, the best decision we made was having Terry as our DJ he really was amazing- our guests have not stopped talking about him.”

“We spoke to Terry at a wedding fair and could immediately tell how passionate he was about his job. Before we had even booked him, he invited us round to his house and spent a good couple of hours finding out all about us, from our jobs and our families to our love of music and what we wanted from our wedding day. I even remember Terry taking the time to find out the names of our parents, so that every time he referred to them he could do so by name. We knew immediately after this meeting that we wanted Terry to DJ and MC for us and our experience with Terry throughout the rest of the process, particularly on our wedding day, confirmed that this was one of the best decisions we made.”

From the quality of music to his presentation and interaction with guests was stellar. He is the Rolls Royce of DJ’s without the price tag. He has to win this award.”

“My scores are absolutely genuine, to be honest Terry went so above and beyond for us I would have scored him literally more than 100%. He was more than a DJ, he really glued our wedding together during the lead up and spent a lot of time with us to help us to piece together our perfect day.”

He offers much more than just a ’DJ’ service – he goes above and beyond the call of duty offering sage advice from his years of experience. Music was very important to us and Terry more than exceeded our expectations.”

“The most important thing that Terry does is give you the time to get to know you, discuss your wedding, offer ideas and talk through plans without a 'big sell'. We first spoke for 1.5 hours on a Saturday morning before we booked and glad we did as nothing could have been better on the day.”
